

Idaho

The potential to grow and make innovative products in rural America is limitless. Since 2009, the Obama Administration has made targeted investments to help rural businesses grow. Through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's projects in affordable housing, energy efficiency, roads and bridges, and internet access, coupled with loans and grants for rural businesses, the Administration has helped to attract and retain a talented rural labor force, improve connectivity and access to information, move products to market, and make rural communities competitive—ultimately supporting strong local economies and expanded opportunity for rural Idaho families.

MADE IN RURAL IDAHO

High Country Fusion Company, Inc. of Fairfield, Idaho, fabricates HDPE Piping and Custom Fittings & Structures. With USDA assistance, they were able to hire more workers and purchase additional equipment, allowing them to meet expanded overseas sales and global marketing for specialized fusing of polyethylene pipe.

GROWING EXPORTS

In 2012, exports of farm and ranch products alone contributed $2.3 billion to Idaho's economy. The President's Made In Rural America initiative helps rural businesses capitalize on demand for American-made products and identify ways they can participate in global markets.

HOUSING

Access to safe, affordable housing is critical to maintaining the rural labor force. USDA has helped 10,868 Idaho families purchase or repair homes.

CONNECTIVITY

USDA has invested $44.8 million to support new and improved broadband service for rural Idaho families. Broadband service helps to expand access to state-of-the-art health care, educational, and cultural resources and helps rural businesses compete in the global economy.

WATER

USDA has invested $131.6 million to support efficient water supply, treatment and storage facilities, and wastewater treatment systems. That investment has improved the health of thousands of rural Idaho families who now have access to clean water and reliable sanitation.

SUPPORT FOR RURAL BUSINESSES

USDA has made investments to help 278 rural businesses in Idaho thrive and grow.

USDA investments in everything from advanced biofuels manufacturing facilities to food hubs help businesses, many of them small, capitalize on emerging markets for rural-made products. In rural America, small businesses support one in three jobs.

RENEWING RURAL MANUFACTURING

The rural economy includes more than products that come from farms. Rural manufacturing supports 22,316 jobs in Idaho. USDA has invested $47.1 million to help rural manufacturers in Idaho increase production and capacity.
